Role play

You and a friend are in a café. The waiter asks if it is still raining, you tell him it is now dry and sunny. You order fish and chips for yourself and sausage, egg and chips for your friend. The waiter repeats the order and asks if you want anything to drink. You order two cups of coffee.

The waiter gives you the bill. You say the meal was good and not too expensive.

Now, write a script for two people to act out and send your script to the editor of An Gannas.
