Role play

You were on the train yesterday which arrived in Penzance at 4.15 pm, 30 minutes late. You left a bag on the train. It contained 3 items: a book, a present for your son/daughter/wife/husband, and one other item. Go to the train station office and report the loss, you decide on the name/subject of book, the type of gift and the other item.

Now, either, act this situation with a friend or write a script for two people to act out.
