

Kesva an Taves Kernewek

The Cornish Language Board

Election of Board Members

Kesva an Taves Kernewek / The Cornish Language Board promotes the Cornish Language through organising Cornish Language examinations, supporting teachers of Cornish, conducting research and publishing books. See the website for more details - <https://www.kesva.org/>

The Board

There are 21 members of the Board:

- 15 elected by members of Kowethas Yeth Kernewek, the Cornish Language Fellowship
- 5 appointed by Gorsedh Kernow, the Federation of Old Cornwall Societies and Cornwall Council.

The board is elected every three years. The next election is in December 2021. The new Board will run from 2022-2025.

Nominations

To nominate a candidate to the Board please send the information listed below to the Board Secretary, whose address is below.

Please include:

- the name of the nominee
- your name and the name of a second person supporting the nomination
- written confirmation from the candidate that they are willing to serve on the Board
- a short 'election address' of up to 75 words written by the candidates themselves, in both Cornish and English, containing details about themselves, aspects of the language which are important to them and whatever else they feel is relevant.

Please send nominations, before 8 November 2021, to:
